2.2.6.1.1 Elizabeth KENNEDY b. 1925; adopted.

Descendants of Jane Dorey Later Generations

2.2.6.2 Clara LATIMER and Philip James MAUGER

This couple lived on Isle Madame in Cape La Ronde, NS. They are buried in the cemetery of St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS.

2.2.6.2.1 John Plimmer MAUGER b. 1915 Birmingham, England; d. Jan 6 1940 Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, NS of drowning; bur. Jan 9, 1940 St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS in his adoptive parents' family plot; adopted.

Five-year old John arrived Quebec, ON on 5-23-1920 on ship Minnedosa en route to Halifax, NS with many other children; he had departed 5-14-1920 with the Middlemore Party. This voyage was one of many that brought the "home children" to Canada, see http://www.bifhsgo.ca/home_children_voyages_1920-1926.htm The Home Children: Between 1869 and 1930 about 100,000 children aged six months to 18 years immigrated from Great Britain to Canada. They were not generally orphans, but, for various reasons mainly related to abject poverty, they had been institutionalized, perhaps in a workhouse, a residential school run by one or more workhouse unions, a residential farm, a reformatory, or a home run by one of various philanthropic societies. They were brought to Canada by religious organizations of several dominations, and then ended up as farm labourers or domestic help.

2010 was declared in Canada as the Year of the British Home Child.

http://www.bifhsgo.ca/special_projects/home_children/Middlemore-Index/P-Index.htm itemizes the children, including John Plimmer: left England 5-14-1920 with a final destination of Nova Scotia.

A John Plimmer was born 2Q 1915 in Birmingham (per the FreeBMD Birth Index); his mother's maiden name was Turton.

Per Shirley Lancaster 9-2010: "We believe John was the illegitimate child of my grandmother Florence Plimmer. His father was a soldier during the 1st WW and was killed before they were married. Grandma was ill in hospital after the birth and I have found out that John's birth was registered by my great aunt Agnes Plimmer (nee Turton), Florence's sister in law. This name appears on the birth register and I am hoping to get a copy of John's birth certificate which may or may not list his father. My mother knew he had been adopted by a family in Canada as he did communicate with Grandma on several occasions. Mother has a postcard sent from him to grandma when he was on a visit to Calgary. She also has a copy of the obituary that was sent on his death although it does not contain any dates. I have also found him on the ships register." And "[My mother] has a newspaper cutting sent to my grandmother reporting John's death and knows that John was a much loved adopted son."

Elma Gladys Latimer died July 29, 1943 in Rocky Bay. She married Lawrence Nicholas Keating on June 1, 1922.

A 12-18-2010 email from John McGrath: “We had a little discussion on Elma Latimer and her children. She lost her first three children while they were infants. Her first daughter, Mary Gladys, was premature which must have been brought on by the excitement of her wedding. Unfortunately Elma died in childbirth with her fourteenth child. Bev Keating wrote a story detailing the sad events of that day. My aunt, Mary Keating, helped her father raise the family for many years. I still remember trying to sneak by those huge dogs to try and get a slice of pie from Mary.”

A second baby named Mary Gladys KEATING, born to the same couple, on June 1, 1922 . . . which was also their wedding day. Her death is June 3, 1922, Book 102, page 490.

2.2.8.5.1 Gordon Joseph LATIMER and Clara ROODE

LATIMER, Gordon Joseph — 76, Tatamagouche. It is with great sadness that the family announces the death of Gordon on November 6, 2010. Gordon was born in Barrachois, Arichat Island, Cape Breton, a son of the late George and Mary (Boudreau) Latimer. Gordon moved to Toronto at the age of 18 where he met and married Clara Roode of East Earlton. The couple eventually moved back to Nova Scotia, settling in Barrachois, near Tatamagouche, where they raised their children. Gordon was a true jack of all trades and turned his hand to carpentry, maintenance of furnaces and service station pumps, mechanics, trucking, auto body repair and auto salvage. When Gordon and Clara moved to Tatamagouche in the late '50s, he was involved in the construction and management of an Irving service station that became the first garage to offer 24 hour service on the North Shore. Gordon loved music, animals, sunsets, family, friends and his faithful dogs, Duffy and Simon. He is remembered by his family as a man of great constitution who was a hard-working, ingenious, kind, generous and fair man who drove a hard bargain and loved a good deal. LATIMER, William Patrick 'Bill' - 74, St. Peter's, Cape Breton. It is with great sadness that the family announces the death of Bill on February 2, 2011. Bill was born in Barrachois, Arichat Island, Cape Breton, a son of the late George and Mary (Bou-dreau) Latimer. He married Sally Calder on October 24, 1959 in St. Peter's. In the early 1960's, Bill worked with his late brother Gordon at an Irving station in Tatamagouche, and also worked as an iron worker on many construction projects through-out Nova Scotia and Cape Breton including construction of the Seal Island Bridge, MicMac Mall, Sydney Steel and the Lingan Power Plant. He also managed the Irving Oil Bulk plant in St. Peter's, delivering furnace oil throughout Richmond County. In his later years he worked in the maintenance department at StoraEnso, until his retirement in 2001. Bill loved music, animals, fishing, gardening and working in the woods. He enjoyed his work and had a strong work ethic, whether it was for his employment or for helping others. Bill was an avid hockey fan and spent many weekends following his kids all over the Maritimes. Bill enjoyed summers at the cottage, on the Bras d'Or Lakes, four wheeling and on the water. Bill is survived by his wife of 51 years, Sally (Calder); his sons, Brian (Gloria), Bruce (Amanda), Kevin (Kate), and grandchildren, Stephen, Daniel, Jennifer, Matthew, Robyn and Nicole; brothers, John (Corona) and sisters, Christine (Vincent) Boudreau, Claire (Buddy) Hull and Emilie Calder; and many nieces and nephews. Besides his parents, Bill was predeceased by his brother, Gordon and grandmother, Caroline Boudreau, who was a second mother to Bill. The family would like to thank Bill's many caregivers including Mary Cotie and the staff of R.K. MacDonald Nursing Home in Antigonish, especially the caring staff of Grace Hall.
