The French had invaded Egypt in 1798 with the likely goal of colonizing it and stabilizing trade; this is referred to as the French Campaign in Egypt and Syria. In early 1801 a British army of 20,000 invaded Egypt. The French surrendered to them on August 30. It was during this campaign that the British "liberated" the Rosetta Stone and brought it to England. After the Battle of Alexandria on March 21, William returned to Europe by ship, perhaps wounded. (Abercromby died of a wound received during that same battle.) It is believed the original hospital ship William was on sank and the crew and soldiers were rescued. They returned to Portsmouth, England. There he deserted his German Hessian unit, enlisted in the 60th Regiment, married in Canada during a Halifax posting, had a son George, and by 1812 immigrated to Cape Breton, Nova

		Scotia. In 1812 Frederick Laffert petitioned to Nepean: Petitioner, age 26, is a native of Bradenburg in the Market Town of Berlin. He served seven years in the 5th Battalion of the 60th Regiment of Foot. He asks land adjoining that of Lawrence Kavanagh at Little St. Peter's; if he cannot obtain this lot he asks a lot between that of William Sutherland and the River Teaur. At that time, he was referred to in another petition as "Sergeant Frederick Laffert." In 1813 he lived in St. Peter's on 200 acres with 1 woman and 1 girl, was a tailor. The family was all Catholic. (Kavanaugh also lived St. Peter's.) In 1814 he returned to PEI where he discovered his not yet 8 year-old son George had been illegally bound into servitude. See 1814 Affidavit. In 1838 (census) he lived in L'Ardoise as "William Lafforte" with family of 11; tailor. Listed in 1861 census. Death record is for "William Lafford." His scissors are in the family archives, as is a rifle.

		Grew up in Charlottetown, PEI.
1. -2	name unknown	m. abt. 1813–1816: Frederick Lafford Micmac (Mi'kmaq) woman. One child known, more suspected: he appears in the 1841 census at Indian Chapel, Bras d'Or Lake<sup>2</sup>: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ William Lafford, 24 (b. abt. 1817)     wife Mary Lafford, 33 (b. abt. 1826).</li> </ul> This census was of the Indian population. The Indian wife was confirmed by Peter Moore-Lachlacs' grandmother via letter dated 10-19-1969, which he has. "She had children and died." This is interpreted as she died shortly after childbirth. The grandmother referred to the wife as a MicMac Princess, which Peter interprets as a chief's daughter.

<sup>2</sup> Chapel Island, about 6 miles from St. Peters, is today a Micmac Indian reserve. The Indians had a chapel there at the time of the French occupation. I have no evidence of any Laffords living there or near there. The 1841 census was conducted locally, it currently exists on microfilm.

One version: Came to Cape Breton Island at age 3 with parents. Grew up in Grand Greve. Another version: his father had left him on PEI on 1 May 1812, leaving George in the care of Frederick's father-in-law. Frederick returned in July 1814 to discover George had been illegally bound into apprentice servitude, from which Fred extracted him and took him to Cape Breton. Became Sexton of St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS. In 1852 per List of Protestants in Isle Madame the Lafford family was William, 45; Ellen, 22; Jane, 20; Margaret, 18; Sophia (McNeil), 17; and Mary Ann (Robertson), 7. I think the surnames in parentheses indicate a later marriage. Where was his wife Johanna? Some researchers doubt George was a son of Friedrich, but others have no doubt.

1813 Militia Census

"Description and Service of Roll of Captain Lawrence Kavanagh's Company Second Regt. C. Breton Militia, Second Military Division" year ca. 1813. (River Bourgeois, St. Peter's, and Lenox Passage)
Source: Cape Breton Militia Papers "A Return showing the Number of men Capable of bearing Arms in Cape Breton," dated Sydney, 1 June 1813. Hugh Swayne papers at the National Archives of Canada (NAC, MG 24). Transcribed by Lark Szick.

States that Friedrich Wilhelm LAFFERT was born in Prussia, and served for 6 years in the 60th Regiment. The family is all Catholic.

Names	Age	Place of Birth	Residence	Occupation	Length of Service in Army & Corp.	Quantity of Land # of Acres	Grant or Lease	Women	Boys	Girls	Total # of People

-----------------	----	---------	------------	--------	---------------	-----	----------	---	---	---	---

Who comprised William's family? The woman was undoubtedly his wife, the Micmac woman. The child was one whose name we do not know, a child of his wife.

William served in Captain Anthony Mombourquet's Company, 2nd Regiment, 1st Military Division.

1814 Affidavit

I have a transcription of an affidavit prepared by Fredrick William Laffert and sworn 7-19-1814. In it FWL states that he has been living on Cape Breton Island, had previously lived Charlotte Town (PEI) where he had left his infant son named George Laffert in the care of his father-in-law on 5-1-1812. Before leaving PEI he had given the PEI attorney general, now deceased, a deed of mortgage for £100 and interest secured by the house and land presently occupied by a Mr. Lobban. FWL had also given some money to James Cole, an innkeeper, to spend on the schooling and education of the infant son. FWL recently returned to Charlotte Town to discover his son, not yet 8 years old, had been bound into apprenticed servitude (the indenture was made 21 March 1814) until the age of 21 and that the signatures on the Indenture are not authentic.

The Indenture is dated 3-1-1814, and states the child is a "poor boy whose parents . . . are not able to support him."

Laffords Who Married Doreys

Frederick was apparently able to collect his son and take him to Cape Breton Island.

The affidavit was found in:

Public Archives of Prince Edward Island
 Accession No. R G 6.1
 Item No. Series 5, Subseries 1
 Supreme Court Case Files, 1770-1899
 1814. Affidavits – F. W. Laffert

The affidavit suggests, although does not state, that Frederick's father-in-law was deceased by 1814.

1881 Census

In Hastings, Inverness:

Eliaabeth Lafford, 56, widowed, Church of England. ID 1.1 -2.

1891 Census

In the 1891 census, Jane (Lafford) Dorey said she was born in PEI, father born England, mother born PEI.

In Lower L'Ardoise, Richmond County.

The census included several Lafford families. I am excluding occupation because it was fisherman or farmer.

Military

The first Lafford in this story was a member of the 60th (Royal American) Regiment of Foot — an infantry rifle regiment — later, in 1830, named the King's Royal Rifle Corps. It was raised in 1755 in British North America. It served in the French and Indian War (1755–1763), the American Revolutionary War (1775–1783), the Napoleonic Wars (1803–1815), Anglo-Egyptian War (1882) and Second Boer War (1899–1902). It did not serve in the French Campaign in Egypt and Syria (1801).

The 5th Battalion was raised in 1797 at Cowes on the Isle of Wight and equipped entirely with the Baker rifle, they wore green jackets with red facings. We do not know when Friedrich joined the 60th Regiment, nor when and where he mustered out. He was apparently done by 1812.

The source for the next table is a book available on archive.org:

A regimental chronicle and list of officers of the 60th, or the King's Royal Rifle Corps, formerly the 62nd, or the Royal American Regiment
