In this document and the accompanying diagrams, each person has an assigned ID. The ID is a segmented number where each segment is separated by a period. The number of segments indicates the generation. For example, 1.2.3 is the third child of 1.2 who is the second child of 1.0. Spouses are identified with a suffix of “-n” where n is the number of the marriage; for example, 1.2.3-1 is the first spouse of 1.2.3.

			HATTIE FRANKLIN BORN 1849 DIED 1897 AT REST Hattie was believed by some to be his second wife, but I have found no evidence for this. I believe her to be daughter Harriet. Robert S. Latimer believes she was the wife of Philip's son Philip, but this man lived in California as early as 1860 and died there unmarried in 1899. There is more discussion of her identity in the entry for Henriette Dorey. Another mystery is why Philip's early children were baptized in an Anglican church (the last in 1843) and the later children were baptized in a Catholic church (beginning in 1845). I ascribe children William and Chester Leet to Philip because of their naming on the stained glass window. It may be that William was really George William Dorey (son of George and Charlotte) and Chester Leet was Ralph Chester Leet Dorey (son of Henry James Lafford Dorey and Janet Robertson) b. 1897. Philip Cyrus Dorey is my ggg grandfather.
1. -1	Margaret LEET	b. 6-3-1809 Guysborough Intervale, NS m. 5-7-1829 Christ Church, Guysborough, NS d.	Father: Andrew LEETE b. abt. 1776 Connecticut Colony, d. 1-16-1865 Guysborough, NS. English ancestry. Mother: Mary MacPHERSON b. abt. 1873 NY, m. 12-7-1800 Guysborough Intervale, d. 5-28-1875 Guysborough Intervale. Her half-sister Margaret married Andrew's brother Jabez in a double wedding. She was the daughter of James McPHERSON and Mary, he was a British soldier who fought (and likely died) in the Revolutionary War. [This account is in question.] Margaret was a descendant of William Leete (1612–1683), a member of the original Connecticut Colony, a governor of Connecticut). William Leete is considered a “gateway ancestor”: providing his many descendants with William I the Lion, King of Scotland (1142–1214) and Charlemagne as ancestors.

ID	Name	Key Dates	Notes
			Margaret's last child was named Eunice Lucretia Louisa Jane Dorey, I suspect the child was named after two aunts: Eunice and Lucretia Leet. I don't know where Louisa came from. In summer 1786 Margaret's grandfather Andrew Leete moved his wife and six children from CT to Guysborough, Nova Scotia. He was one of the 18 original settlers of the Hallowell Grant. (In 1765 Benjamin Hallowell, Sr., Comptroller of the Port of Boston, received a grant of 20,000 acres on Chedabucto Harbor in what is now Guysborough County. At the end of the American Revolution, lands were granted to soldiers of disbanded regiments and to settlers from former American colonies who had remained loyal to the British crown.) Margaret's father was born with his surname spelled Leete, the final "e" was dropped when the family moved to Nova Scotia. Margaret, born in NS, was named Leet. Grandfather Andrew settled on 150 acres in Guysborough Intervale on the banks of the Milford Haven River. In 1871 Margaret lived with son Andrew Cyrus in Arichat. (Andrew died in Colorado in 1913.) Margaret's death is believed to be about 1875. No burial record found. Frustration continues. A 63-year old Margaret Dorey took a boat, Steamer Alhambra, to Boston, arriving 9-29-1873. This is classed as an act of immigration. On 7-3-2018 I found a New York death certificate #928 for 84-year old Margaret Darey. She died 1-7-1893 New York City, NY. This woman may or may not be my ggg grandmother.

His parents had dropped the final Y from their surname by the time John's birth was registered. 1-2018 his granddaughter sent me birth registration, his birth was registered as Harvard Dore. Parents lived Easton. There are different birth dates: His birth registration says June 18, his Declaration of Intention and his draft card say June 2; the 1901 census says June 27. His middle name was inspired by Harvard University located in Cambridge. Was probably raised in Arichat. Family lived Saskatchewan, Canada. Apparently was the first one in his family to move to California. Moved from Pretty Valley, Saskatchewan to Valley County, MT where he declared his intention to naturalize on 6-10-1914. Arrived Seattle from Rose Valley, Saskatchewan 10-23-1922, age 31, farmer. Three or four children:

He had a moving business and a construction business (he was a prominent building contractor in Hillsborough, Burlingame, and San Mateo), was a real estate developer, and a wheeler dealer. A city street in San Mateo, Dore Avenue, is named for his family. In 1901 he lived on Petit de Grat Road in Petit de Grat, Richmond County, NS with parents Henry and Jennie Dorey and 3 siblings (May, William, and Philip). He was 8 years old, born June 27, 1890. One house away lived Jane Dorey (70, widow of George Wingate Dorey), Benjamin Dorey (nephew, #1.6.3), and George McKenzie (12, adopted). In 1923 he departed Vancouver BC for Seattle, WA. on his way to San Francisco. In 1930 John (38) lived with wife Kathleen (21), mother Janet C. (her data was overwritten as if the person was a 6-year old daughter born ME), and son John Jr. (5, born ME) in Burlingame, CA. Don't know who this son was, certainly not the one born 1940. The surname was transcribed as "Doril", but that is probably their way of writing Doré. I believe there is at least one error in this record, that Janet C. was Janet Christine (Robertson) Dorey, John's widowed mother. In 1940 he lived on Fifth Avenue in Burlingame (48) with wife Kathleen (31), and daughter K. Laverne (8/12, b. CA) Uncle Harve (as Barb Miller knew him) bought property in Redwood City (?) that was a farm with animals. He used to take John Jr. (the son born in 1940) there. John Jr. died there in an accident. After that John Harvard was dispirited. Lived at 1614 Forest View, Burlingame, CA at time of death, Died of cancer. Died with surname DORE.

		Arichat, NS d. 8-7-1918 Péronne, France (WW I)	Parents lived in Barrassois when William was born. Baptized as William Henry Wingard Dorey. Died a Captain in the Canadian Infantry (Saskatchewan Regiment) of the Royal Air Force in World War I. He died at Péronne, France (in Picardy on the Somme River); the effort was a part of the Reduction of Amiens Salient operation on the Western Front which was from August 8 to September 4, 1918. His family believes his body was not found. He is named at the Arras Flying Services Memorial in Pas de Calais, France; this memorial commemorates nearly 1,000 airmen who were killed on the whole Western Front and who have no known grave. On 8 August the Battle for Amiens (also known as the Third Battle of the Somme) commenced when a combined Australian, British and Canadian force attacked the Germans eastwards from Villers-Bretonneux. The offensive broke the German line so thoroughly that most of their field artillery was overrun and captured, their advance reversed. By the end of August 1918, the last German stronghold was located at Mont St Quentin, which overlooked the Somme River about 1.5 kilometers north of Péronne. This was attacked by the Australians, who then entered Péronne on September 2, 1918 after beginning their attack in the early morning of the day before. The War ended shortly thereafter. There is now in Péronne The Museum of the Great War. He was engaged, but not married, to an Englishwoman named Nora.

He may have fought in the Battle of Vimy Ridge, April 9–12, 1917 as part of the Battle of Arras. 5-12-1917 rejoined unit — 13th Machine Gun Company. 8-17-1917 gassed with the new “mystery gas” at Loos, France; this was the Battle of Hill 70. Wikipedia: The battle was costly for both sides and many casualties were suffered from extensive use of poison gas, including the new German Yellow Cross shell containing the blistering agent sulfur mustard (mustard gas). 8-22-1917 invalided to England and posted to Seaford. 8-23-1917 admitted to hospital in Plymouth, suffered from gas poisoning from “Shell Gas Mach Gun” (perhaps a gas-operated machine gun?, likely the mustard gas). 9-4-1917 transferred to The Canadian Convalescent Hospital at Bear Wood, Wokingham, Berkshire. Had cough, chest pains, and inflamed eyes. 10-27-1917 discharged from hospital. 11-6-1917 returned to Canada. 11-14-1917 judged fit for duty in Winnipeg (!) In December 1917 he was diagnosed with bronchitis and conjunctivitis caused by gas poisoning. 1-31-1918 discharged from service at Winnipeg “being medically unfit”. Roxanne was the daughter of Michael Connolly and Sarah McCabe, she was born 1799 in Montreal and died there in 1876. Alfred was Irish. His father Francis Mullins became a successful and wealthy merchant in Montreal, and owned property on Commissioner Street and Place Royal. Montreal is the 2nd largest city in Canada. The first European to visit the area was Jacques Cartier in 1535. In 1611 a fur trading post was erected on the Island of Montreal by Samuel de Champlain, on a site initially named La Place Royale. By 685 there were 500 colonists. The city was incorporated in 1832. Twenty years later the population was 58,000. From the early days, Irish immigrated to Montreal. Some came as colonists, some as soldiers. Overpopulation and the enclosure movement in Ireland inspired many emigrants, especially after 1817. 			One of the puzzles about this man is that he used at least three different names. He fought in the American Civil War. He enlisted 11-14-1861 at Gloucester, MA in the MA 3rd Cavalry. He was a soldier at the time of his marriage. He was discharged 9-15-1862 at New Orleans, LA with a fractured knee. He was admitted in 1890 to the US National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers in Indianapolis (claimed to be married) and was discharged 12-25-1891. He naturalized on 5-8-1888 as Alfred J. Mullins; he lived in Boston, MA at 5 Lowell Court. His death certificate reports the cause of his death as “mitral insufficiency” contributed by alcoholism. There was no informant. The 1842 Census of Canada East cites a Francis Mullins, real property owner and merchant, living in Montreal on Commissioners Street with a family totaling 7 persons; they are not named. The 7 include 3 natives of Ireland and 4 natives of Canada; no persons under the age of 5. This was Alfred’s paternal family. In 1863 Francis Frederick Mullins sold property on Commissioners Street and other locations in Montreal to Francis Mullins. I think that FFM was a son of FM.

			At his death, John left $10,000 to each of his two youngest children, according to family story. On 7-13-1870, a 26-year old John Dorey, born Nova Scotia, lived Goodwin Township, Plumas County, CA as a placer miner. (Brother Philip Dorey had been a gold miner in CA since 1860.) Goodwin was created in 1866, it no longer exists. Given John's marriage the next year, I am sure this miner was my great grandfather. His marriage in 1871 to Cecelia Barrett in CA was an unexpected detail that I found in June 2018. The marriage license was dated May 18, 9 days before the marriage was performed. This location of this event remains a surprise and mystery. Cecelia has been believed to have lived in Boston, why did she go to the gold country of California in order to marry? On 12-6-1872 John filed a Petition to become a citizen of the US. He was born in Arichat in 1845, arrived Boston in April 1866. He was currently living in Somerville, MA. Two men claimed they knew him during the past 5 years, and that during that time John had resided in California, Boston, and Somerville. He was granted US citizenship on 12-5-1874. He is cited in the 1875 Boston City Directory living at 226 Dorchester, a laborer. He is not in the 1872 directory. In 1877–1878 cited in Boston Directory living on Lamartine, a sewer contractor. 1880 census: John lived in Boston on Lamartine Street, with wife Celia and sons John W. and Daniel; laborer. Next door lived the family of Timothy Gunning, a few doors away was the family of John Gunning whose daughter he married in 1905. In 1882 was cited in Boston Directory living at 38 Kendall, a contractor. In 1884–1885 cited in Somerville Directory living at 26

			Temple, a contractor. In 1889–1892 was a contractor in Somerville, MA with a house at 26 Temple. In 1889 he and his wife Celia were named in conjunction with “separate support” #47237. On 8-25-1895 he arrived Boston on ship Olivett from Halifax, NS, age 50, a contractor living in Somerville. In 1900 lived in Somerville, MA at 45 Temple Street with wife Cecelia; retired, ill; born Sept. 1843, age 56. In 1903–1907 cited in Somerville Directory as living at 45 Temple. In 1906–1907 son Daniel was cited there. In March 1906 Estella (Bryne) Dorey lived/visited at 45 Temple Street, Somerville, MA (per post card), apparently with her father-in-law. On 7-2-1907 John entered into a contract with his son John W. and his wife Nellie to support him during his “natural life to a comfortable support and maintenance equal to the style and manner in which .[he was] accustomed and used to furnish for himself.” The care extended to John’s minor children through age 18 (“Robert James Dorey and the child now expected to be born”). This agreement was in consideration of “certain mortgages made by John J. Dorey to Nellie E. Dorey” for $27,000 on property in Somerville. “Immediately after the mortgages were recorded John James “repossessed himself of both of the mortgage notes and refused to redeliver them to” Nellie and retained possession of them until 5-18-1911. On 5-19-1911 John assigned to Willard B. Bryne all claims against his son and Nellie. In 1915 Willard Bryne sued Nellie Dorey “and another” for recoupment of damages. The judge ruled “The defendants are not entitled to recoup in this action any unpaid interest or unpaid principal on the mortgage notes. . . The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $5,200.35.”

			Willard Beecher Bryne (1866–1941) was a nephew of John’s, the son of Caroline Ann Dorey and Michael O. Bryne. In 1891 his first child was born in Somerville, and at other times he lived in Boston and Medford. On 6-23-1910 John wrote to son Dan from Arichat, NS about brother Moses Dorey whom he had been trying to help. On 11-23-1910 wrote letter to son Dan in Natick, MA saying he had moved back to Boston from Arichat and was living at 52 Clarendon Street. “Charley Dorey is down in Arichat now.” In November 2013 I found a photo on Find A Grave of a tombstone engraved “John J Dorey 1843–1923” in Fairmount Cemetery, Denver, CO; Memorial ID 32428892. I believe this is my great grandfather. His brother Andrew Cyrus Dorey had died in Salida, CO in 1913. His sister Julia (Dorey) Mullins had gone there to settle Andrew’s business. So it is possible that John might have gone there as well. And then I found: in 1920 an Elizabeth T. Dorey, claiming to be the legal wife of John J. Dorey, made a claim against his property that had been transferred to Willard B. Bryne for, she declared, the purpose of “hindering, delaying and defrauding the creditors“ of John, in the amount of $1500. John was known to be living in Denver, CO. The legal notice was published in the 6-5-1920 issue of the Cambridge Tribune of Cambridge, MA. In 1919 he lived in Denver, CO at 1835 Champa, “rooms” per a city directory. In 1922 he lived in Denver, CO with wife Sarah E. at 2141 California. In 1925 Sarah E. Dorey, widow of John J. Dorey, lived in Denver at 4378 Wolff. In 1926 Sarah E. Dorey, widow of John J. Dorey, lived in Denver at 2016 Penn. Find A Grave has a photo of his tombstone. FindAGrave

She, age 15, traveled with Emma Barrett, age 20, and Bernard Barrett, age 7. Moville is located on the north Atlantic edge; in the second half of the 1800s it was a point of embarkation for travellers to the US. A niece of Cecelia, Annie Barrett, married Andrew Willis Bryne [this is a family story so far uncorroborated]. There was a second niece Katherine Barrett. Name spelled "Celia" on marriage record and in 1880 census, "Cecelia" on death record. Children: John William Dorey, born 1873 Daniel Aloysius Dorey, born 1874 In October 1880 William Barrett was naturalized in Essex Co., MA. He was born 1-12-1831 Cork, Ireland. He arrived Boston 7-4-1865. He may or may not be Cecelias' father. In 1870 a Barrett family lived Esopus, Ulster Co., NY: William (40, b. Ireland), Anna (38, b. Ireland), Catherine (12, b. NY), and Fanny (9, b. NY). This may or may not be Cecelia's parental family. In 1870 (8-24) a 17-year-old Celia Barrett lived Grafton, MA, as a domestic. In 1871 she was in California where she married John. Why there? [Nov. 2020 I have a theory based on slight evidence. In 1874 a Katie A. Barrett married Matthew Joseph Flynn in Sacramento, CA. Perhaps Katie was a cousin and went to CA with Cecelia.] In 1880 she lived with husband and children in Boston; she was 28. In 1898 "Celia Dorey" had a "separate support" probate against John J. Dorey in Somerville, MA. In 1900 she lived with husband in Somerville at 45 Temple Street. In 1905 she died of ptomaine poisoning. She lived with her husband at 45 Temple Street, Somerville. [I have come to suspect her death to be murder: what 59-year old woman who has cooked all her life dies of ptomaine (food) poisoning?.]

His youngest child, Estella Elizabeth, was born that year. In January 1920 lawsuit 20511 in Middlesex County involving Daniel A. Dorey vs. City of Pittsfield, MA was reported as completed. In 1920 lived in New Orleans, LA at 822 St. Charles Street in a boarding house. He is described in the census record as lodger, 45, single, sewer contractor, born MA, father born Nova Scotia, mother born Ireland. On July 19, 1927 The Natchitoches Times cited "City of Natchitoches vs. D. A. Dorey" as "sentence suspended for 10 days with leave granted to Dorey to comply with the law, and qualify as master plumber." In 1930 lived in Natchitoches, LA. He is described in the census record as a boarder, 55, single, born MA, literate, a plumber and general contractor, father born England, and mother born Irish Free State—the last two of which do not fit my grandfather (but not uncommon untruths). In 1940 lived in Natchitoches, LA at 530 Jefferson Street, as a lodger with the family of W. M. Payne, the parish sheriff. Dan was a plumber. In July 2014 I finally found a record of his death. He died of chronic cardiac disease aggravated by hypertension in Natchitoches at 215 Touline Street. The death certificate states his correct birth date, his birth location as Boston, and that he was never married (so I guess he never told anyone otherwise). He had lived in that place 37 years. His parents were unknown.

		Arichat, NS	There is controversy about this woman's identity. Her baptism record makes her parentage clear. It is her father's tombstone that introduces the controversy: "PHILIP DORÉ BORN 1799 DIED 1863, HATTIE FRANKLIN BORN 1849 DIED 1897." Who was Hattie and why was she named on the tombstone? Wife? Daughter? First of all, Hattie is a common nickname for Harriet. Some researchers believe Hattie to have been a second wife of Philip's, but there is no evidence for this aside from the tombstone itself. I believe Hattie to be the daughter who was baptized as Henriette, which is why I report here that Harriet died in 1897. Family genealogist Robert S. Latimer in his Latimer Family History states that "Philip married Hattie Franklin," Philip being #1.2. This was repeated in Janvrin's Island, 200 Years to Celebrate. That claim seems unlikely because Philip Dorey the son lived in California from at least 1860 until his death in 1899 as an unmarried man. Stay tuned. I think both men were wrong, by assuming a connection between Harriet and Philip based on the gravestone; there was a relationship, but it was father and daughter, not man and wife. The 1897 burial record was transcribed as "Mrs. Franklin?" and cause of death as "Drowned while bathing near the house; as a good swimmer supposed to have taken a fit or cramps in the water." This record, aside from the troublesome question mark, suggests that Hattie was not Mrs. Dorey. Regrettably, no Mr. Franklin has been identified.

			Denver, CO to Daniel A. Dorey, Natick, MA about estate of Andrew Cyrus. 7-29-1913 letter from Julia T. Mullins in Salida, CO to Daniel A. Dorey about affairs of Andrew Cyrus. Surname spelled "Dore" on death certificate.
1.12	William DOREY	b. d.	Evidence for his existence: "Willie" is named in the stained glass window in St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS. He is also mentioned in an 1899 letter from Louise Dorey Hamilton addressed to Mrs. Stella Dorey: "I hear from Will occasionally." (Stella was Estella Dora Bryne Dorey). He could be #4.1 who was cited with his father George Dorey in the 1852 census. I think this is more likely.
1.13	Chester Leete DOREY	b. d.	Evidence for his existence is his appearance in the stained glass window in St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS. I have come to believe he is really Ralph Chester Leete Dorey, # 1.1.3.5.
1.14	Eunice Lucretia Louisa Jane DOREY	b. 1856 bap. 3-24-1856 St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS m. Asa HAMILTON. d. San Francisco, CA ?	On 9-29-1873 a Louisa Dorey, 17 of Nova Scotia, arrived Boston on the ship Alhambra from Charlottetown, PEI intending to live in the US. I do not know for sure if she is Eunice, but the age fits. In 1899 lived at 317 Powell Street, San Francisco, CA; this address was either an hotel or rooming house. Louisa did not show up there in the 1900 census (District 258). There is an 1899 letter from Louise Dorey Hamilton (Auntie Louise) to Mrs. Stella Dorey. There is a letter of 8-13-1900 from Nellie L. Hamilton of Brooklyn to Stella Dorey recalling a visit with Louise Hamilton.
1.14 -1	Asa HAMILTON	b. m. d.	In 1900 Nellie L. Hamilton of Monument Beach, MA wrote a letter to Stella Dorey. Nellie may have been a relative; Nellie may have been aa nickname. Monument Beach is on Cape Cod near the Canal; may have been a resort. There was a Hamilton family in Worcester, MA with an Asa Hamilton as an early ancestor.

??	Thomas DOREY	b. 2-22-1832 bap. 3-17-1867 St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS	Lived in Richmond Mines when baptized, miner. I include him because he was a Dorey baptized in the Arichat church where Philip Cyrus Dorey's family was baptized. Philip Cyrus' second son, Philip Dorey, was born 1832; he also was a miner. Perhaps Philip and Thomas were twins, although there are no other instances of twins in this family, or perhaps they were the same person.
